Re: Rhonda Hollander ; RFA No. 24-13078

Dear Mr. Martin:

This will acknowledge receipt of your correspondence regarding Ms. Hollander and a second attorney. You will need to file a separate complaint against each attorney. Furthermore, please be advised that The Florida Bar does not accept audio recordings. Please provide a transcript of any audio materials you wish to have considered.

The Florida Bar only regulates attorneys. There is no need to include information or documentation related to the conduct of law enforcement officers. Please provide the dates for the Board meetings Ms. Hollander attended in 2023 and 2024 as well as a clear statement which describes the specific conduct you allege the attorney engaged in which forms the basis of your inquiry. Please limit your submission to no more than 25 pages.

Please note that if no additional information is provided, this file will not be processed further.

Sincerely,

Annemarie Craft, Bar Counsel

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR COMPLAINANTS AND RESPONDENT-ATTORNEYS

MAILING AND EMAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Materials Received That Do Not Comply With These Instructions May Be Returned Or Not Otherwise Incorporated Into The File

The Florida Bar converts its disciplinary files to electronic media. All submissions are scanned into an electronic record and hard copies are discarded. To help ensure the timely processing of inquiries/complaints, responses and rebuttals, please review the following instructions prior to providing your submission.

1. Please limit your submission to no more than 25 pages including exhibits. If you have additional documents or material available, please reference the documents and/or materials in your written submission as available upon request. Should The Florida Bar need to obtain copies of any such documents and/or materials, a subsequent request will be sent to you.
2. Please do not bind, staple, tab or index your documents. You may underline but do not highlight documents under any circumstances. Please do not submit materials in color. When documents are scanned in our disciplinary files, highlighting and color will obscure the underlying text.
3. Please do not attach media such as audio tapes, thumb/flash drives, CDs, or photographs. We cannot process any media which cannot be scanned into the electronic record. Do not submit .jpeg, .mpeg, .mp3, or links to online materials including Dropbox.
4. Please do not submit your original supporting documents. All documents will be discarded after scanning and we will not be able to return any originals submitted to our office. The only original documents that should be provided to our office are the inquiry/complaint form, response and certificate of disclosure.
5. Whether you are a complainant or a respondent-attorney, please do not submit confidential or privileged information. Documents submitted to our office become public record. (Respondent-attorneys may wish to consult Rule 4-1.6 (e) of the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar.) Confidential/privileged information should be redacted. Such information includes, but is not limited to, bank account numbers, social security numbers, credit card account numbers, medical records, dependency matters, termination of parental rights, guardian ad litem records, child abuse records, adoption records, documents containing names of minor children, original birth and death certificates, biometric data such as fingerprints, Baker Act records, grand jury records, and juvenile delinquency records. If information of this nature is important to your submission, please describe the nature of the information and indicate that it is available upon request. Bar counsel will contact you to make appropriate arrangements for the protection of any such information (to the extent permitted by law) as part of the investigation of the complaint.
6. The review of inquiries and complaints is governed by Standing Board Policy 15.75. If the inquiry/complaint is closed by bar counsel, the complainant may request a review of the closure in accordance with the policy.
7. Please provide your submission only one time. Do not submit duplicates via email, facsimile transmission or by any other means. Do not include these instructions. Respondent-attorneys do not need to include a copy of the complaint.

Please be aware that materials received that do not meet these instructions may be returned or not otherwise incorporated into the file. Thank you for your consideration in this respect.
