It was a suggestion. Pretty much anything unnecessary shouldn't be included.
Anything important and or relevant should be sent.

Maritza,

I am curious of what you are calling unnecessary attachments? If matters need to be discussed by the Board, then that is what we are here to do.

Good afternoon all,

I am happy to be a new board member and can't wait to learn.

Having said that, I would like to ask everyone a big favor: Please keep emails to a minimum. It will help me to retain the most important information while I acclimate to the new position.

We can keep email threads short, with facts, no feelings, and minimal attachments.

I can't speak for others, but I get lost in SO much unnecessary information and attachments.

I really appreciate it.

I look forward to learning with and from everyone.
